ORDER

Having reviewed at its meeting on September 13, 2012, the results of an investigation as to whether this case merits further proceedings, the State Ethics Commission has determined that the matter complained of herein has been cured by Respondent's submission of her calendar year 2011 financial disclosure statement and the admissions and agreements set forth in the Respondent's written statement dated August 31, 2012, and further that dismissal of this Complaint is not contrary to the purposes of the Public Ethics Law.

It is therefore determined that the Complaint issued on June 28, 2012, against Antoinette McNair is hereby dismissed.

STATE ETHICS COMMISSION

August 31, 2012

I, Antoinette S. McNair, a State of Maryland employee, admit to failure of filing a required financial disclosure form with the State Ethics Commission by the given deadline. I am sending a money order for $250.00 for statutory late fee and $100 money order as payment to the State in lieu of potential fines, totaling $350.00. The money orders are made to State of MD Ethic Commission.

I verify that the above is true by my signature and notary.

Sincerely,

Antoinette S. McNair
